

Boards of Control and Review.

visions of this act; and the said groups of assessors shall when directed by the said Appeal Tax Court, immediately, in conformity to the provisions of this act, proceed to assess and value the property in said city as they shall be directed to do by said Appeal Tax Court, and at the place designated by said court. The Governor shall also appoint three suitable persons in the first, second, third and fourth wards of Baltimore city, who shall be a Board of Control and Review for the said first four wards of said city; the board shall be known as "The Board of Control and Review for Baltimore City No. 1;" he shall also appoint three suitable persons in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth wards of said city, who shall be a Board of Control and Review for said last named wards, which board shall be known as "The Board of Control and Review for Baltimore City No. 2;" he shall also appoint three suitable persons in the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth wards of said city, who shall be a Board of Control and Review for the last named four wards, said board shall be known as "The Board of Control and Review for Baltimore City No. 3;" he shall also appoint three suitable persons in the thirteenth, fourteenth, nineteenth and twentieth wards of said city, who shall be a Board of Control and Review for the last named four wards of said city, said board shall be known as "The Board of Control and Review of Baltimore City No. 4;" he shall also appoint three suitable persons in the fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth wards of said city, who shall be a Board of Control and Review for the last named four wards, said board shall be known as "The Board of Control and Review for Baltimore City No. 5; he shall also appoint three suitable persons in the twenty-first and twenty-second wards of said city, to be a Board of Control and Review for the last named two wards of Baltimore city, said board to be known as "The Board of Control and Review for Baltimore City No. 6;" each of the said persons so appointed to be members of the said respective Boards of Control and Review shall be registered voters, property-owners and tax-payers, and shall have resided in one or more of the wards of Baltimore city, and have been a tax-payer therein for at least two years before his said appointment; and shall have adequate knowledge of the value of property in the locality for which he is appointed; and one of the members of each of said Boards of Control and Review shall belong to or be a member of the political party which casts the next largest number of votes at the last general election in this State, and who shall be selected from a list of three persons whose names shall be presented to