

personal property. The State Tax Commissioner shall provide the said County Commissioners of the several counties of this State, and the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore city, with the necessary books, blanks and schedules for said listing, in the same manner as he is required to provide the same in this act, for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and there is hereby appropriated, the sum of three thousand dollars, or so much thereof as is necessary to pay for said books, blanks, and schedules, for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and the same amount, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated biennially for every second year thereafter. All the penalties and requirements prescribed in this act, both as to the owners of property and assessors, Boards of County Commissioners acting as Boards of Control and Review; Boards of Control and Review of Baltimore city, and clerks for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six, shall be in force and apply to the assessment and valuation of personal property provided for in this section for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and biennially thereafter. The schedules provided for in this act, shall be distributed in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and every second year thereafter, in the city of Baltimore, by the police force of said city.

Additional
assessors.

193. The Governor is empowered, without the advice and consent of the Senate to appoint additional assessors, for Baltimore city, for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six, if it should be found that the assessors appointed for said city under the preceding provisions of this act are not sufficient in number to perform, in the time prescribed by this act, the duties required of them by this act.

Taxation of bonds, etc.

194. All bonds, certificates of indebtedness or evidences of debt, of whatsoever form made or issued by any public or private corporation, incorporated by or under the laws of this State, or of any other State, territory, district or foreign country, or issued by any State (except the State of Maryland), territory, district or foreign country, not exempt from taxation by the laws of this State and owned by residents of Maryland; and all certificates of indebtedness issued by any individual or firm, shall be subject to valuation and assessment to the owner thereof in the county or city in which such owners may respectively reside; and they shall be assessed and valued according to the rate of interest therein stipulated to be paid; that is to say, such of said bonds, certificates of indebtedness or evidences of debt as bear an interest of six per centum, shall be
