

grading, repairing, drainage, leveling, surveying, laying out, extending, widening, opening, closing, straightening, relocating, improving or repairing any street, sidewalk or alley in said town; and may condemn or purchase the right of way of any street or alley which they may determine should be opened for the public good; for the preservation of property rights and privileges; for the regulation of sales of the streets, alleys or public places in said town; for the weighing of hay, coal and other property; for the suppression of vice and immorality; for the suppression of concealed weapons; for suppressing the practice of discharging fire-arms, fire-crackers, torpedoes or other explosives; for regulating the handling and storing of all kinds of explosives; for the prevention of gambling; for the licensing of theatrical or other public amusements; to suppress tramps; for lighting the streets; for preventing swine, cattle, dogs or other animals from running at large on the streets; for imposing a tax on dogs; for locating of hog-pens, privies and stables; and the Mayor and Town Council shall have full power and authority to pass all such ordinances as may be necessary to carry out and to give full force and effect to the powers conferred upon said corporation by law. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Town Council shall have the right to provide for the organization, equipment and government of fire companies, and to permit said fire company to organize as a body, and to provide within its self all sales and regulations of its members and property appertaining thereto, subject to the general supervision of the said Mayor and Town Council.

Tax upon dogs.

189. The Mayor and Town Council shall have power to levy a tax upon dogs, not to exceed one dollar for any one dog, and also a tax not to exceed two dollars upon any one bitch, within the said corporation.

Right of appeal.

190. Whenever it shall, in the judgment of the Town Council, become necessary to condemn land for the purpose of opening or widening a street or alley, the corporation or any person aggrieved by the condemnation proceedings may appeal to the Circuit Court under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance.

Removal
from office.

191. A member of the Town Council may be removed from office for the same cause and in the same manner that the Mayor may be removed, as provided for by this act.