

What application shall contain.

First. His application shall be in writing, signed by him, and shall contain a specific and exact description of the room in which he desires to sell such liquors, and if the building in which said liquors are to be sold, contains more than one room, such application shall specifically describe and locate the room in which he desires to sell such liquors in said building.

Certificate of freeholders.

Second. At the time of filing the said application he shall also file with the said County Commissioners a certificate of eight male freeholders of good moral character resident in the school district in which he proposes to sell such liquors, except in the city of Salisbury, in which he shall have fifteen such freeholders, which certificate shall state that the applicant is a person of full age; that he is a man of sobriety and of good moral character; and such certificate of recommendation shall be signed with the proper signatures of such freeholders; and if any such freeholder cannot write he shall sign by mark, attested by a subscribing witness; provided, that no person shall be a competent or qualified freeholder to make such recommendation for a dealer in the city of Salisbury, unless he be the owner of real estate of the assessed value of at least five hundred dollars over and above all liens, nor shall any person be a competent or qualified freeholder to make such recommendation for a dealer in any other part of said county, unless he be the owner of real estate of the assessed value of at least two hundred dollars, over and above all liens; and it shall be the duty of the said County Commissioners to ascertain the qualifications of the said freeholders; and provided, that no freeholder shall sign more than one certificate of recommendation, and if he shall sign more than one such certificate in said county, then his signature shall be considered as a nullity, and shall be erased from all such certificates.

Cost of license.

Third. At the time of filing the said application and certificate, the applicant shall also deposit with the clerk to the County Commissioners the sum of two hundred dollars ($200) for a license to sell any such liquors in quantities of a half-gallon or less, or if he desires to sell such liquors in any greater quantities than one-half gallon at a time, he shall take out an additional license after complying with the same requirements as are necessary for a retail license, in the school district in which such wholesale business is to be conducted, and for such license he shall deposit with the clerk the sum of two hundred dollars for a license to sell such liquors in quantities greater than one-half gallon; and the said sum shall be paid for a
