

such approval, and the said clerk to the said commissioners shall issue the license to the applicant, and to no other person, which license shall expire with the thirtieth day of April, next succeeding the granting thereof; but if such application shall not be approved by a majority of the members of said Board of County Commissioners, then the commissioners not approving said application shall endorse on the same the words, "not approved," and shall sign the same, and also the date of such endorsement.

Clerk to keep docket.

63. The said clerk to the said commissioners shall procure and keep a suitable docket, and shall enter therein all applications for license, with the day of the filing thereof, and of all papers and orders relating thereto, and such docket, together with the papers, shall be open at all times to the free inspection of any person desiring to examine the same.

To whom liquor shall not be sold.

64. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, give away or in any manner dispense any such liquors to a minor, insane person, habitual drunkard, or any person in anywise intoxicated; and no person to whom license is issued or his employees or agent shall permit any drunkard, disorderly person or minor to enter, assemble or loiter in or upon the premises where such liquors are sold; and if any such person shall enter upon said premises, it shall be the duty of the party in charge of the place where such liquors are sold, immediately to order him to leave said premises; and if such person shall refuse or shall not leave the premises immediately, it shall be the duty of the party so in charge to eject him; and if such person is permitted to remain in such premises, this shall be evidence of the sale of such liquor to such person.

Screens, blinds, etc., prohibited.

65. No room in which it may be lawful to sell such intoxicating liquors under license as aforesaid, shall have any screens, blinds or painted windows or partitions, or any other obstruction to the view through the door or windows thereof, and the said room shall be so arranged, either with windows or glass in the doors, that the whole of the interior of the said room shall be in full view of persons on the street or highway through the said windows or doors, and no license shall issue for any place that does not abut and front on and have its only entrance directly from a public street or highway; and no license shall be issued for any place or room not substantially on the level of the public street or highway, and the interior of the said room shall be at all times, both day and night, exposed to the full view of passers by, and the said room shall
