

any person whose license has been revoked, shall be considered an unlicensed dealer after such revocation; this section shall not affect any election district in said county in which it may be unlawful to issue a license at the time the offenses herein provided against are committed.

72. Any person convicted under the laws of this State, providing for the regulation of the sale of the liquors aforesaid in Wicomico county, shall be disqualified from selling or vending any form of the liquors aforesaid in this State, for the space of one year from such conviction, directly or indirectly in his own name or right, or as agent or copartner or otherwise; and if any licensed dealer shall permit such convicted persons to become directly or indirectly interested with him in the sale of such liquor, knowing or having reasonable grounds to believe that such party has been so convicted, then the person or persons so permitting him to have any interest in the sale of such liquors, shall be deemed to have violated this law, and upon conviction thereof, shall have his license forfeited by the court, and he shall be fined in a sum of not less than fifty dollars, and be confined in the county jail not less than two months.

Effect of conviction.

73. All laws relating to the sale of liquors in Wicomico county, inconsistent herewith, shall be and are hereby repealed; provided, that the laws prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in No. 4, (Pittsburgh), and in No. 10, (Sharpstown), election districts of said county, shall be and continue in full force and effect, and the sale of said liquors in said districts shall be unlawful; and provided further, that any law of this State permitting the voters of the said county or of any election district, town or city thereof, to petition against the issuing of any license as aforesaid, shall be of full force and effect, notwithstanding this act; provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in the seventh or Trappe election district of Wicomico county; and no license shall at any time be issued therefor; anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Repeal and proviso.

74. If any person shall obtain a license to sell liquors by any false pretence or representation of any kind, or if he shall alter or change the room or place in which such liquors may be sold in pursuance of the license hereby to be granted, or shall have any door in or to the said room that can be opened with lock and key or latch, except the ones described in his Obtaining license by false pretence.
