

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, <sup>Change of name.</sup> That the name of the Brooklyn Water and Light Company of Anne Arundel County, a body corporate duly incorporated under the General Incorporation Laws of Maryland, be and the same is hereby changed to that of the Brooklyn Water and Light Company, and by such last-mentioned name, shall have perpetual succession, and may, by said name, sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal, and the same may alter and renew at pleasure, and also to ordain, establish and put in execution such by-laws and regulations as shall seem necessary for the government and management of said corporation, and to alter and repeal the same at pleasure, and shall have and exercise all rights, powers and privileges which corporate bodies may lawfully possess for the purposes mentioned in this act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Franklin Mewshaw, Lewis Grieneisen, Franklin P. Anderson, Herman Stoll and John H. Geis, the five incorporators and directors named in the certificate of incorporation, filed in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county, shall serve as directors of said company until the first day of March, 1897, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. <sup>Directors.</sup>

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the capital stock of said company shall be twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), <sup>Capital stock.</sup> divided into eight hundred shares, at the par value of twenty-five ($25) dollars each, which may be increased to an amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000); any increase in said capital stock to be approved by a majority of the stockholders of said company in general meeting, called by the directors of said company after fifteen days' public notice of said meeting, by two or more insertions in one of the daily newspapers published in Baltimore city; and at all elections and on all questions, every stockholder shall have one vote for each share owned by him or her, and may vote either in person or by proxy.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That said company shall have power to manufacture and sell in Brooklyn and its vicinity in Anne Arundel county, electricity and gas for illuminating purposes, and for all other purposes to which electricity or magnetism or gas may be applied, and may contract for the purchase or hire of the same as may be for the benefit and advantage of said company; and said company shall also have power to dig such artesian or other wells, contract and build such works and <sup>May sell gas, electricity, etc.</sup>