

sale of intoxicating liquors for beverages and — — votes were cast against licensing the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverages. The judge and the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county when such an election shall have been held therein, upon the receipt of the certificate of election aforesaid should it appear that the majority of the votes cast were "against" the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverages, shall give notice of such returns of election by advertisement in one or more newspapers published in said county; and it shall not be lawful for any license for the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverages to be issued in said county, election district, city or town, as the case may be, on or after the first day of May next succeeding; provided, however, that any license then outstanding and unexpired shall continue for the time for which it was issued.

Unlawful to issue license.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That no person, house, company, association or body corporate, shall deposit, keep or have in his or its possession, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind whatsoever, or any cider, tonic beer, lager beer, schnapps, gin or any article used or sold as a beverage in the composition or compounding of which whiskey, brandy, high wines or alcohol, or any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be an ingredient, with intent to barter or sell or give away the same in violation of the provisions of the preceding sections, or with intent that the same shall be bartered or sold or given away in violation thereof, within the limits of the said county, district, town or city in which there may be a majority of the votes cast against the license aforesaid.

Unlawful to
have liquor
in possession.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That nothing in the two preceding sections shall be construed to permit the sale of pure apple cider, (not to be drank on the premises of the seller), in quantities not less than one gallon at one time by the manufacturers of apple cider, or by persons who have grown the apples therefor; but such sale as apple cider shall only be lawful between the first day of August in each year and the first day of January of the succeeding year; and no sale of cider shall be made to minors or intoxicated persons, or on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, or on any election day; nor shall any sale of cider be lawful either for themselves or as agents for others, by such manufacturers of cider or grower of apples, if they shall be the proprietors, keepers or owners of a hotel, inn, barroom, restaurant, saloon, eating house, store or pool, bagatelle or billiard room, or by their agents, waiters or clubs; nor shall manufacturers of cider, or growers of apples,

Sales of apple
cider.