

or their agents, sell cider, directly or indirectly, in any hotel, inn, barroom, restaurant, saloon, eating house or pool, bagatelle or billiard room.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if any person, house or company, association or body corporate shall violate any of the provisions of the three preceding sections, within the limits of Wicomico county, or any election district, town or city thereof where a majority of the voters shall be against license as aforesaid, he shall, on each and every conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than six hundred dollars, and the costs of prosecution, and be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than six months nor more than twelve months, or in the discretion of the court, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than six hundred dollars, and the costs of prosecution, and failing to pay such fines and costs forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term of not less than six months, nor more than twelve months, or until such fines and costs are paid.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall prevent any competent or qualified druggist under the laws of this State, engaged in the regular drug business as a compounder of medicines, from selling such liquors for medicinal purposes upon a written prescription, signed by a regular and practicing physician, or for sacramental purposes, upon a written order signed by a clergyman; and each prescription or order shall be wholly in writing and signed with the proper signature of the party giving the same; but such liquors so sold upon prescription or order shall be furnished but once upon any prescription or order, and shall state the full christian name of the person to whom such liquor is to be furnished, and the kind and the quantity thereof; and each order shall state specifically the particular use for which the intoxicating liquor shall be desired, and no prescription shall be for more than one pint; and any druggist, upon selling such liquor upon order or prescription, shall promptly and properly paste the prescription or order in a book which shall be placed in a convenient place for inspection of the officers of the said county or town or city or election district of said county, or any person ordered by court, or by any justice of the peace of the said county, or any person or persons presenting a written request signed by five or more reputable citizens of said county, town, city or election district of said county; but no physician shall make or sign any such prescription, unless the violations

and penalties.

Sales of Liquor by druggists.