

238. In all cases in which any person shall be found guilty of violating any of the ordinances of the corporation of Frederick, it shall be lawful for the justice of the peace of election district number two in Frederick county, trying said cause, upon conviction of the offender, to impose the fine prescribed by the particular ordinance under which said person is tried, and upon failure or refusal of the party convicted thereof to pay such fine and cost, to commit the person convicted to the jail of Frederick county for the time prescribed by said ordinance, unless the person convicted shall pay such fine and costs before the day limited in such commitment, in which case the justice who tried the cause shall issue his order to the sheriff to release said person. Powers of Justice.

253. In all appeals from the judgment of the justice to the Circuit Court for Frederick county, the party appealing shall give bond with at least two sureties, to be approved by said justice, in a penalty double the amount of the fine imposed and the cost which may accrue on such appeal, which penalty shall be adjudged by such justice and conditioned that if the party appealing shall not prosecute such appeal with effect at the next term of the Circuit Court, and also pay and satisfy said Mayor and Alderman, in case the judgment of the justice shall be affirmed, as well as the fine and cost adjudged by the said justice, as also all cost that shall be awarded by the said court, then the said bond to be and remain in full force and effect, otherwise to be of no effect, and no such appeal shall be heard by the court until such bond shall be given and approved as aforesaid, and filed with the clerk of the court. Appeal bond.

255. All offenses against the laws and ordinances of the Mayor and Alderman of Frederick shall be tried and determined by one of the justices of the peace of election district number two of Frederick county, and all arrests for breaches of the laws and ordinances of the corporation shall be made by the constables appointed by the Mayor and Alderman of Frederick, and by no other constables whatsoever, and for compensation for services rendered under this sub-title of this article, each of said justices of the peace shall receive in equal quarterly instalment from the said Mayor and Alderman of Frederick, the sum of one hundred dollars annually, and each of said justices shall have jurisdiction to try all causes, and to impose the respective penalties therefor, prescribed by the ordinance of the Mayor and Alderman of "Frederick," and which, by the terms of said ordinance are to be imposed by the Mayor and Alderman, as well as the penalties hereafter prescribed by Trial of cases.
