

the ward or county shall go before the board of registry during such sessions and make oath that he believes any specified person upon such registry is not a qualified voter, such fact shall be noted. At the end of the registration for each of these days, the registers shall be examined, compared and made to agree; and they shall then be signed immediately, under the last name registered, under each letter in the same way as hereinbefore provided.

20. Before separating on the last day, said board of registry shall make out and deliver to one of their number chosen by lot, as clerk, a list with the registered address of all those who have been registered as qualified voters, whom either one of the officers of registration suspects not to be qualified voters, or against whom any voter of the ward or county may have made complaint, as above provided. If said board of registry shall, however, know that any person so complained of, is a qualified voter, then such name need not be put upon the list of suspected persons, unless required by a member of the board. The officer of registration to whom such list has been delivered, shall, on or before the Friday next following, sign a notice, and send the same through the mail, duly stamped, to the address as given in the registry, of each person who is upon such suspected list, requiring such person to appear before the board of registry upon the Tuesday following, giving the time of such session, and show cause why his name should not be erased from such registers; proper blanks and postage stamps shall be furnished for this purpose by the board of supervisors. A similar notice shall also be served by said officer, so acting as clerk, upon such person before the following Tuesday, and if he cannot be found at the place designated upon said registers, the notice may be left there, if such place can be found. Any officer of registration, or other person acting temporarily as such as hereinafter provided, who wilfully neglects to perform his duty touching such scrutiny, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days, nor more than sixty days. In case of temporary disability on the part of said officer acting as clerk, the board of registry may appoint a temporary clerk belonging to the same party, and administer to him the usual oath of office, and said temporary clerk shall perform all the duties of the office, until the disability of the regular clerk is removed. And it shall also be the duty of each of the other officers of registration, so far as may be in his power, to inform himself as to all the persons whose names may be on such suspected list.

List of persons suspected to be disqualified.

Notices to be sent.
