

Limits of Rockville.

179. That the limits of said town shall begin at the northeast corner of the fair grounds of the Montgomery County Agricultural Society, and run thence with the dividing line between said grounds and lands of the heirs of the late Lawrence A. Dawson, to the southwest corner of said fair grounds; thence by a straight line to the southeast corner of the land of E. B. Prettyman, where said lands corner with the lands of Dr. E. E. Stonestreet, and the old Carter farm, now known as Rockville Heights; thence with the dividing line between said Rockville Heights, and the lands of E. B. Prettyman to a point where the tract known as Rockville Heights, the lands of E. B. Prettyman and the lands of Everett S. Beall corner, being the southwest corner of the lands of E. B. Prettyman; thence by a straight line to the corner of the lands of Florence S. Manning and E. C. Peter, on the west side of the public road from Rockville to the Great Falls of the Potomac; thence with the dividing line between the lands of E. C. Peter and the lands of said Manning and others, recently owned by Amos S. Adams, to a point opposite the southwest corner of the lands of Mrs. Colley; thence to the southwest corner of the lands of Mrs. Colley; thence with the dividing line between the lands of Mrs. Colley and the lands of Mrs. Josephine Burford, in a northerly direction to the Darnstown road; thence in a straight line to the southeast corner of the old dwelling house on the Copps farm, known as and called "West End Park," formerly the west dwelling house; thence by a straight line to the northwest corner of the house on the Frederick road, now occupied by Edward Warren and family; thence in a straight line to the spring near where formerly stood the dwelling house of the late John G. England; thence in a straight line to the west side of Horner's lane at a point where the branch leading from the aforesaid spring crosses said Horner's lane; thence in a southerly direction and on the west side of said lane to the point at which said lane intersects the Baltimore road; and thence at said point across said road to the south side thereof; thence with said Baltimore road and with the south side thereof to the intersection of said Baltimore road and First street on Mrs. Jane Maddox's land; thence with the western side of said First street to the Washington city or Veir's Mill road; thence by a straight line to the northeast corner of said fair grounds, the place of beginning.
