

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

Assembly of eighteen hundred and ninety-four, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows, viz:

Game law.

9. It shall not be lawful for any person to kill or destroy in said county, any woodcock or partridge, between the first day of December and the first day of October in each year; or to kill or destroy, in any manner, any pheasant, between the date of the passage of this act and the first day of October, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-seven; and from and after the first day of October, in said year eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, it shall be unlawful for any person to kill or destroy, or try to kill or destroy, any pheasant in said county, except during the months of October and November, in each year; and it shall be unlawful to snare or entrap any woodcock, partridge or pheasant at any season of the year whatsoever.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 19th, 1896.

CHAPTER 46.

AN ACT to give authority to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to permit the Baltimore Centennial Association to use Clifton Park for the purpose of an exposition, and also ratifying the ordinance passed by the City Council and approved by the Mayor of Baltimore City on the second day of April, 1895.

May use
Clifton park.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City are hereby given full authority and permission to grant to the Baltimore Centennial Association, Clifton Park, to be used by said association for the purpose of an exposition, and the Ordinance No. 27 passed by the City Council and approved by the Mayor on the 2nd day of April, 1895, is hereby fully ratified and confirmed as if full and complete authority had been given to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to pass the same prior to its enactment.

Approved March 19th, 1896.