

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

his custody, the cooking and serving to said prisoners the provisions furnished for them by said Board of County Commissioners, as hereinafter provided, the necessary washing for said prisoners and keeping the jail in a cleanly condition; and said Board of County Commissioners shall not pay said sheriff for any services he may render in the discharge of his official duties, any further or other compensation, and shall not be in any way liable for any other fee or compensation whatever, to said sheriff than as above provided for the discharge of his official duties, except as follows: For every execution of the sentence of death by said sheriff, upon any person convicted of a capital offense, they shall pay him the sum of three hundred dollars; for carrying and conveying any person or persons under sentence to any State institution or to or from any jail of any other county, or the jail or station-houses of the city of Baltimore, or to or from any other place of confinement beyond the limits of Carroll county, under the sentence or final order of any authorized judicial authority, the said Board of County Commissioners shall pay unto the said sheriff his actual car fare or actual cost of transportation, together with the actual car fare or actual costs of transportation of such person or persons so carried or conveyed to the place or places above mentioned.

Statement to be kept by sheriff.

139 A. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to keep a correct and full statement or schedule of all persons committed to the said jail, showing the length of time and the offence for which they are committed, and the name of the officer by whom committed, which statement or schedule, together with all books, papers and commitments kept by him, pertaining to pensioners in the jail, shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of any person or persons; and at the first meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of said county, in each and every month, the said sheriff shall make and file with them, under oath, a full and complete report of the names and descriptions of all persons confined in said jail, with a statement of the length of time and offence for which they are committed, and for any neglect of the sheriff to comply with any provision of this section, he shall be subject upon indictment and conviction to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, and in default of payment of said fine, he shall be confined in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year.

139 B. It shall be the duty of the Board of County Commissioners of Carroll county, to furnish all supplies and provisions