

proceedings therein, or any part of such proceedings, whether in or out of court, certified by the judges of the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore City, under the seal of said city, shall be evidence in any court in this State, and the judge of the Baltimore City Court shall have full power, in his discretion, to require the costs of any appeal or any part thereof, to be paid by all or every of the appellants, or by the city of Baltimore, as the circumstances of each appeal, in his opinion, shall justify.

18 B. If a final judgment shall not be given in time to enable the assessors or other officers to make a new or corrected statement for the use of the proper authorities in levying taxes, and if it shall appear from such judgment that said assessment was illegal, erroneous or unequal, then there shall be audited and allowed to the petitioner in next year's tax levy, and paid to the petitioner the amount, with interest thereon from the date of the payment, in excess of what the tax should have been, as determined by said judgment or order of court.

Payment of excess to petitioner.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the right of appeal hereinbefore provided for, shall not be applicable to any assessment made under the act for the valuation and assessment of all the property in this State, passed at the January session of the General Assembly of Maryland, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six.

Not to apply to Act of 1896.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 4th, 1896.

CHAPTER 323.

AN ACT to extend the term of George A. Deakyne, county treasurer of Caroline county, to the first Monday in July, in the year 1898, and to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 60 of Article 6 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Caroline County," sub-title "County Treasurer."

WHEREAS, By virtue of the law in that case made and provided, the term of office of George A. Deakyne, county treasurer for Caroline county, will expire on the first Monday in January, in the year 1898; and
