

Preamble. WHEREAS, It is desirable that the term of the county treasurer should expire simultaneously with the fiscal year in said county, to wit., on the first Monday in July in each and every year; therefore,

Term extended. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the term of office of George A. Deakyne, the present county treasurer of Caroline county, be, and the same is hereby extended until the first Monday in July, in the year 1898; provided, however, that the said George A. Deakyne shall be required to give a new bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as is now required by law, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his said office for the term hereby extended.

Repeal. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That section 60 of article 6 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Caroline County," sub-title "County Treasurer," be, and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Election of treasurer. 60. At the general election for county officers in every fourth year on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, accounting from the year 1897, a county treasurer shall be elected by the qualified voters of Caroline county, who shall hold office for the term of four years from the first Monday in July next following his election, and until his successor shall qualify.

Approved April 4, 1896.

. CHAPTER 324.

AN ACT to grant the sanction and consent of the General Assembly of Maryland to the conveyance from Thomas H. Dixon (since deceased) and wife, of certain real estate, situated in the village of "Mount Washington," to the Presbyterian Church of "Mount Washington," in Baltimore County, and to authorize and give the sanction to said church, to convey said property to Ira Day and Florence G. Day, his wife.

Preamble. WHEREAS, Thomas Dixon and Rebecca H. Dixon, his wife, on the 15th day of September, 1881, conveyed to the Presbyterian Church of "Mount Washington," in Baltimore county, a certain lot of ground situated in the village of Mount Wash.
