

Repeal. twenty-two, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington County," sub-title "Keedysville," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Levy of taxes, &c. 291. They may lay an equal tax on the property within said town to such an amount as may from time to time be deemed necessary, and may appoint a collector to collect the same and prescribe his term of office, responsibility and compensation, and the said collector shall have the same power to distrain for the taxes so levied, as the collector of county taxes, has and shall collect and pay the same to the said Burgess and Commissioners, or the said collector may collect said taxes by an action of debt, as other debts are collected.

New section. SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the following section to be known as section two hundred and ninety-one A, be added to Article twenty-two, Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Keedysville," to follow section two hundred and ninety-one of said Article twenty two, and to read as follows:

Property subject to taxation. 291 A. All property within the limits of Keedysville, or what may have a situs there, by reason of a residence of the owner therein, shall be taxed for municipal purposes, and the assessment for town purposes, shall be the same as that for State and county purposes; and in case any real estate assessed for State and county purposes be divided by the town boundaries, the Burgess and Commissioners shall place a fair valuation upon that contained within the town limits and make a just apportionment of said assessment; should any property liable to be taxed for town purposes, be omitted in the county assessment, the Burgess and Commissioners shall have power to include said property in the town assessment, and impose a just valuation thereon.

Effective. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.
