Course of instruction. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Visitors and Governors of Washington College may prescribe such a course of instruction to be completed in not less than three scholastic years, as the principal, vice-principal and professors of Washington College in the State of Maryland, shall deem necessary for carrying into effect the true intent and meaning of their act, the education of competent teachers for the State of Maryland.

Certificates to graduates. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Visitors and Governors of Washington College may, in their discretion, and in accordance with the provision of sections eleven and twelve of the original act of incorporation of which this act is intended to be a supplement, authorize the issuing to the graduates of this department who may have satisfactorily completed the prescribed course and who have attained the age, which now is, or may be hereafter prescribed for teachers under the public school law of Maryland, a certificate authorizing the said graduate to teach for two years from the date thereof, in any of the public schools of the State established under the authority of the public school law of Maryland, and at the expiration of two years, upon the recommendation of any public school examiner under whose supervision the graduate may have taught for eight months, to grant a permanent diploma authorizing the recipient to teach in the public schools of the State, the said diploma to be subject to revocation in the discretion of the said Visitors and Governors of Washington College.

Repeal. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Effective. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 19, 1896.
