

city, in the Baltimore city jail, in the discretion of the court. All fines received under this act shall be paid into the common school fund of the city or county in which such conviction takes place.

Not to interfere with physicians and surgeons.

SEC. 12. Nothing in this article shall be so construed as to interfere with the rights and privileges of resident physicians and surgeons, or with persons holding certificates duly issued to them prior to the passage of this act; and dental students operating under the immediate supervisions of their instructors in dental infirmaries or dental schools chartered by the General Assembly of Maryland.

Prosecution of past offences.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall prevent, or be so construed, as in any way to hinder the prosecution, conviction or punishment of any person who may have offended against any of the provisions of said Article thirty-two of the Code of Public General Laws, or against any of the provisions of any of the Acts of Assembly of which the same was a codification.

Effective.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1896.

CHAPTER 379.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Cambridge and Chesapeake Railroad Company, a corporation of the State of Maryland, formed under Article 23, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Railroad Companies," so that the route or line of said railroad may be extended from Cambridge to Fox creek in Dorchester county, instead of from Cambridge to Golden Hill therein.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The Cambridge and Chesapeake Railroad Company was incorporated on the fifteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, under the provisions of Article 23, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Railroad Companies;" and Preamble.

WHEREAS, The charter or certificate of incorporation was duly filed in the office of Secretary of State, and is now of record among the railroad incorporation records in said office; and