other compensation than now allowed by law for services in serving a commitment; and provided also, that no officer of the law conveying any prisoner under the sentence from the justice of the peace in Brooklyn to the Brooklyn lockup, in the fifth election district of Anne Arundel county, shall receive any other compensation therefor, except as now allowed by law for the serving of a commitment.

SEC. 2. The provisions of this act shall not be held to apply Exception. to or affect the person now holding the office of sheriff of said county.

Approved April 4, 1896.

CHAPTER 409.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section two of Article thirty-six of the Code of Public General Laws, title " Fees of Officers," as amended by Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, Chapter ninety-one, entitled an Act to repeal Section two of Article thirty-six of the Code of Public General Laws, title " Fees of Officers," and to re-enact the same, with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section two of Article thirty-six of the Code of Repeal. Public General Laws, title "Fees of Officers," as repealed and re-enacted by the act of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, chapter ninety-one, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:

SEC. 2. No account for officers' fees by any of the several officers herein named rendered for services to or in behalf of Fees of the counties of this State, in this section named, shall be officers. allowed by the County Commissioners thereof, until said account has been submitted to and approved by the judges of the circuit court for said county, or a majority thereof; and no charge for officers' fees shall be paid or allowed by the County Commissioners aforesaid, in any criminal case where jurisdiction to try, hear and determine the matter charged against the party accused has been conferred by law upon justices of the peace, but the County Commissioners may levy or pay to the officers performing service in such cases such