

beds with sufficient covering therefor, and at least five chambers more than are or may be sufficient for the private or family purposes of said hotel keeper, with stabling to be at all times sufficient for five horses at least, all said beds and chambers to be and remain on the said premises on which intoxicating liquor is by this sub-title of this article licensed to be sold; and each applicant shall also file in the office of said clerk, his bond, duly executed to the State, with at least two sureties or satisfactory security to the clerk to be approved by said clerk in the penal sum of fifteen hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful observance of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, and the payment of any and all fines, penalties and damages which may be imposed or recovered under this sub-title of this article, which said bond shall be responsible to all such persons hereinafter described as may be injured by the sale of intoxicating liquors sold by any person licensed under this sub-title of this article; provided, however, that if there shall not be twelve free holders, resident in the school district in which the house may be situated where intoxicating liquors are expected to be sold, or if said house be not situated within the limits of any school district, in such case it shall be sufficient that the certificate required by this section, shall be signed by twelve free holders, resident in the election district in which such hotel may be situated.

Cost of license.

136. Before any person can obtain a license under this sub-title of this Article, he shall be required to pay to the said clerk for the license to be issued, as hereinafter directed, for each place of sale of intoxicating liquor, the sum of money which is now or which may hereafter be required by the general law of the State, to be paid into the treasury of the State, and shall in addition thereto pay the said clerk for a license to sell by the drink or in quantities not to exceed five gallons, the sum of $250 for one year or for a fractional part of a year, pro rata; and whenever these provisions are fully complied with it shall be the duty of the said clerk to issue to the applicant a license accordingly; and all licenses issued under this sub-title of this article shall be transferable as traders' licenses now are under the general laws of the State, and shall expire on the first day of May next thereafter; said license fees shall be paid by said clerk to the Board of County School Commissioners of Worcester county, to be by said board applied to and used as a part of the public general school fund of said county, and the bond of the said clerk shall be liable for the payment of said money on suit instituted by said board.