

often thereafter as may be necessary in the discharge of the duties of their office, not less, however, than once in every month; a majority of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn to a further time.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the clerk shall keep a minute of all the proceedings of said council in a well-bound book, which shall be opened at all seasonable times to the inspection of any person interested therein; and he shall perform such other duties as the council may assign him.

Duties of clerk.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to said corporation and safely keep the same and pay the same out only upon the order of the Mayor and clerk; he shall also keep a correct account of all receipt and disbursements which shall be at all seasonable times open to the inspection of said council or any member thereof.

Duties of treasurer.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the mayor shall appoint such number of under-bailiffs, and for such length of time as he may deem necessary, such appointment shall be made in writing and filed with the clerk. The council shall allow the chief bailiff, under-bailiffs, clerk and treasurer such compensation as they may deem proper.

Under-bailiffs.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That all the elective officers of said corporation shall, before they enter upon the discharge of the duties of their respective offices, take an oath that they will diligently and faithfully perform the duties of their respective offices, without favor, partiality or prejudice, and said oath shall be filed among the records of the corporation. That all said officers, except the mayor, may take such oath before the mayor.

Oath of officers.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the clerk, chief bailiff and treasurer shall give bond to the council with such penalties and such sureties as the council may require conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices.

Bonds of clerk, bailiff, treasurer.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the judges and clerks of election shall make and file a return of every election held by them, and shall determine all questions arising thereunder; but any person considering himself aggrieved by such decision may appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court for Garrett county, which court shall hear and determine such appeal and decide who shall pay the costs thereof.

Returns of election.