

of, as shall, in their opinion, injuriously affect the sanitary condition thereof.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That they shall have full power to regulate privies, and direct the character of boxes or other fixtures for them, and the mode in which they shall be emptied and contents removed, and the disposition made thereof, and shall prohibit the construction and maintenance of privy sinks, cesspools or other depositories of filth within the corporate limits. May regulate privies.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That they may adopt suitable measures for the removal of sewerage and garbage, or they may appoint, annually, a scavenger, and prescribe his duties and fix his compensation, which shall be paid by special tax for that purpose, to be imposed on the owners of the respective buildings, and collected therefrom; and the same shall be a lien on said property and collected as other taxes are collected; and the council may pass suitable ordinances to enable such scavenger to collect and remove all filth from the town, and provide how he shall dispose of the same, and may require of such scavenger a bond for the faithful performance of his duties; provided, that the special tax imposed to carry out the provisions of this section shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five cents per month on any private house, to be paid by the owner thereof as aforesaid. Removal of garbage.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That the said council as often as they deem advisable, cause an assessment to be made of all the real and personal property within said town or the corporate limits thereof, which assessment shall not exceed the assessment of the same for the county purposes, and the council a tax thereon not exceeding fifty cents on the one hundred dollars worth of assessable property in any one year. Assessment of property.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That the said council shall meet on the first Monday in June after said assessment, to hear any person feeling themselves aggrieved by such assessment, and shall increase or abate any such assessment as they may deem just. Appeals from assessment.

SEC. 21. And be it further enacted, That whenever the council shall levy a tax, they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of the persons charged thereon, and shall cause to be affixed the respective sums to be collected from such persons, and issue a warrant to the chief bailiff to collect the same. List of tax-payers.