

performance of the duties of their office. The duties of the under-bailiffs, when appointed, shall be to assist the chief bailiff, and they shall be subject to his order and directions; for that purpose they shall have all the power and authority herein conferred on the chief bailiff.

SEC. 27. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor shall have all the power of a justice of the peace, in criminal cases where the Mayor and Council are a party, and shall receive the same fees as allowed justices of the peace, in similar cases; and an appeal from his decision, when the demand or fine exceeds five dollars, may be taken to the Circuit Court for the county, which shall determine the matter, as upon the appeals from the justices of the peace.

Powers of mayor.

SEC. 28. And be it further enacted, That the chief bailiff shall have the same fees for making distress for taxes as are allowed county collectors; and for making arrests or serving process for violating any ordinances of the corporation, the same fees are allowed constables for similar services; and when the bailiff fails to discharge any of the duties of his office, he may be fined not exceeding ten dollars for any one offense.

Fees of bailiff.

SEC. 29. And be it further enacted, That any fines, penalties or forfeitures imposed by this charter or by any ordinance of the council may be collected by proceedings in the name of the Mayor and Council, before the Mayor or justice of the peace; and the said Mayor or justice of the peace shall have the power to commit the offender to the lockup or county jail, on failure to pay such fine and forfeiture, until the same shall be paid with cost.

Recovery of penalties.

SEC. 30. And be it further enacted, That the council shall not expend, or contract to expend, in any one year, more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other services for that year.

Limit to expenditures.

SEC. 31. And be it further enacted, That that part of the several county roads within the limits of said town are hereby declared to be public streets and avenues of said town, and shall be, from time to time, improved and repaired as, in the discretion of the council, the public interests of the town may require and the resources of the town will permit and justify.

Public streets.

SEC. 32. And be it further enacted, That the council shall keep and annually publish a tabular statement of the receipts and expenditures of the funds of the corporation.

Annual statements.