

State, at which said election, the ballots to be cast shall be printed upon the regular ballot sheet, at said election, the words "For License" or "Against License," shall be printed in separate columns and the ballots so cast shall be received by the judges of the election and deposited in the regular box provided by said sheriff and counted by them, who shall within three days thereafter make a written return of the same under their hands, seals, and of the number of ballots so cast, "for or against license," to the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, who shall record the same; and it shall be the duty of said clerk, within ten days after said election, to cause to be printed and published in one or more newspapers published in said county, once a week for two successive weeks, a proclamation of the result of such election in each of said districts of the county aforesaid.

Conduct of election.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found at such election, and proclaimed by the said clerk of court, that a majority of the qualified votes have been cast "for license" in any of the said election districts, wherein the sale of liquors or other fermented spirits is now prohibited by law, immediately after the proclamation by the said clerk of the results of said election, such prohibition shall be and is hereby removed, and any and every person may proceed to sell liquor or other fermented spirits in such election district upon obtaining license therefor, as is now or hereafter may be provided by Public General or Public Local Law.

When sale of liquor lawful.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found at such election, and proclaimed by the clerk of court, that a majority of the qualified votes have been cast "against license" in any of said election districts wherein the sale of liquor or other fermented spirits is now licensed by law, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, firm, company or body corporate on and after the first day of May in the year succeeding said election, to sell or otherwise dispose of, by way of barter, directly or indirectly, any spirituous, fermented or other intoxicating liquors or medicated bitters, producing intoxication, or any compound of which alcohol forms the chief or a principal ingredient, or for any license to be issued or granted for the sale of the same in any such election district of the county aforesaid; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquor by a regular pharmacist or druggist now having a license for such business under the law of this State, upon the written bona fide prescription of a regular practicing physician of such

When sale of liquor unlawful.