

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the Board of Road Commissioners shall have the authority to supply the engineer with whatever labor he may require to lay out the roads in the several districts of the county for construction, improvement or repair.

To supply labor.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the engineer shall superintend all work done upon the public roads, together by contract or by day labor, and to see that said work is faithfully done according to specifications and contract, and according to the requirements of the case, and the said engineer shall make frequent reports to the Board of Road Commissioners and to the County Commissioners, and shall also report to them upon any subject pertaining to the discharge of his duty whenever he may be called upon so to do, either by the Board of Road Commissioners or by the County Commissioners.

Engineer to superintend work.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That any person or persons to whom a contract to construct, repair or improve the public roads, or any part thereof of Anne Arundel county, may be awarded, shall give bond in such penalty as may be prescribed by the Road Commissioners and the engineer, each in his respective district, with a surety or sureties to the satisfaction of the Road Commissioners and the engineer conditioned for the faithful performance of his contract within a specified time, which bond shall be given to the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel county; any moneys recovered or paid under said bonds shall be turned into the county treasury for the use of the road fund according to the system now existing by law, whereby each district bears the expense of maintaining the public roads therein.

Bond of contractors.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act be, and they are hereby repealed so far as they relate to Anne Arundel county.

Repeal.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the first day of May, 1896.

Approved April 4, 1896.

Effective.