

to the same extent as if he had resisted a constable, and he shall perform all such other duties as are or shall be imposed by law, ordinance or by order of the Mayor or Council, and he shall pay over to the treasurer monthly all fines and fees collected by him.

41. The tax collector, before entering upon the discharge of his duties shall subscribe to an oath for the faithful performance of his duties and give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to be approved by the Mayor and Council, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties; he shall collect all taxes that may be levied by law, ordinance or otherwise, and shall pay the same promptly to the treasurer; he shall keep safe, and return, when demanded, his tax assessment books, bills, papers and receipts, and shall make out monthly reports of his collections; his books shall be subject to inspection by any taxpayers; all such taxes shall be collected as county taxes are now collected in Worcester county, or by suit and extension as debts are now collected.

42. The Mayor and Council shall have power to make such laws, pass such ordinances not contrary to law in conformity to this charter, as they may deem necessary for the good government of the town and the inhabitants thereof; to prevent and remove and abate all nuisances and obstructions in or upon the streets, sidewalks, highways, lanes, alleys, drains, waterways or in or upon any lot, and to provide for imposing a fine or fines upon any person or persons causing or creating any such nuisance or obstructions; to grant permits for and control and regulate the erection of all buildings, specifying in all cases the material of which they shall be built, and for what purpose used, and to have power to remove or order the removal of any building that may be a nuisance, or that may have been erected or built of wood and commonly known as frame buildings on the burnt district since the fire of August 4th, 1895, and within the lines as prescribed by a commission appointed by the Town Commissioners of Berlin, on August 7th, 1895. Said commission to ascertain said line, being composed of Robert J. Showell, Edwin J. Derickson and Lewis C. Dilworth, or that may have been erected under a permit to erect temporary buildings or that may have been erected contrary to any ordinance heretofore passed or hereafter to be passed, or that may endanger any building contiguous thereto in case of fire, and to have power to fix all building lines in said town and to enact ordinances and impose fines for the enforcement of these provisions, to establish grades upon
