

three citizens of this State, as may seem best to him, whose duty it shall be to report, if possible to this, if not, to the next General Assembly of Maryland, a modification of what is known as the "Torrens" plan, relating to transfers of real estate, such modification making said system of transfer conformable, as nearly as may be, to the laws now existing in this State; provided, however, such commission shall further report such amendment to the existing law relating to real estate as it shall deem advisable to facilitate the workings of such modified "Torrens" plan.

Appropriation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of paying the expenses of such commission the sum of twenty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated, and the Treasurer of the State, on the warrant of the Comptroller, shall disburse the same for the objects and purposes herein specified to or upon the order of the commission to be appointed as aforesaid.

Effective.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 23d, 1896.

CHAPTER 85.

AN ACT to repeal Sections 267, 268, 269, 270, 271 and 272 of Article ten of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Roads," also section 275 of said Article ten of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Roads," as re-enacted at the January Session of eighteen hundred and ninety-four, and to re-enact the following sections in lieu thereof.

Repeal.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, and 272 of article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Roads," also section 275 of aforesaid Article ten, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Roads," as enacted at the January Session of eighteen hundred and ninety-four, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows :