SEC. 4. After sale of its railroad, property, assets and franchises, as authorized by this Act, and the appropriation of the proceeds thereof, first by payment to creditors (if any), and, secondly, by dividend among its stockholders, a dissolution of said Baltimore and Delaware Bay Railroad Company, and the termination of its corporate existence may be effected by bill in equity, filed for that purpose in the Circuit Court for said county of Kent. Said bill shall show the exact financial status of the corporation; shall state the names and residences of its creditors (if any), and the amount due each; the names and residences and extent of the holdings of its stockholders, and all other matters germane to the situation, so that said Court may be fully informed in the premises. Upon the filing of such bill, and such notice to creditors (if any), and also to the stockholders, either actual or constructive, as the said Court may deem proper and direct; and upon such further proceeding and hearing as shall satisfy the Court that the assets of the said corporation have been duly and properly accounted for, administered and paid, the said Court shall, at its discretion, direct a decree of dissolution, and upon the making and entry of such decree the said Baltimore and Delaware Bay Railroad Company shall thereupon become and be absolutely dissolved, and its corporate existence terminated, and all certificates representing its shares shall be surrendered to the treasurer thereof for cancellation, and duly cancelled accordingly.
