CHAP. 175.

1 D. No person or corporation or agent or officer of any person or corporation conducting the business of transporting any goods, chattels or commodities of any kind, on land or water, or on both, shall decline or refuse to issue an "order" bill of lading for goods, chattels or commodities offered to it for transportation, if the shipper or consignor of such goods, chattels or commodities shall verbally or in writing request the issue of such "order" bill of lading. And any person or corporation or agent or officer of any person or corporation wilfully violating this section or any provision thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, in the case of a corporation, and in the case of an individual by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.
