

Acts of eighteen hundred and ninety, they are authorized to receive; and the said Mayor and City Council are hereby authorized and empowered to incorporate into the bonds, issued under authority of this Act, as a part of the contract between the corporation of Havre de Grace, and the purchaser of said bonds as security for the payment of the principal and interest thereof as the same shall mature, a pledge of the money authorized to be paid to them under section one hundred and ninety-two of chapter one hundred and eighty of the Acts of eighteen hundred and ninety, and the purchasers and holders of said bonds shall have the right to rely and insist upon said security pledged to them until the said bonds are fully paid.

CHAP. 127.

155. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer, as soon as the annual levy of taxes is made and placed in his hands, to give notice thereof in the several newspapers published in said city, stating the time after which no discount will be allowed on taxes, the time from which taxes bear interest, and warning all taxpayers of their liability to be published as delinquent taxpayers, and to have their property sold unless the taxes with which they are charged are paid on or before the first day of January next ensuing. He shall also immediately after the receipt of the levy as aforesaid make out the bill of each taxpayer, to which a similar notice shall be annexed, and upon application shall forward the bill by mail, or otherwise, to the person or his agent to whom taxes have been assessed.

Notice to be given of levy
of taxes.

155 A. Immediately after the first day of January in each year the city treasurer shall make up a list of all delinquent taxpayers and the amount for which they are respectively in arrears, and if the said taxes are not paid on or before the first day of February next ensuing, he shall immediately thereafter cause the same to be published once a week for two successive weeks in two newspapers, if so many be published in said city, and charge a proportionate part of the cost of said publication to each of said delinquents; should any of the said taxes so in arrear continue unpaid beyond the twentieth day of February after such advertisement, the city treasurer shall make up a further list of all taxes due and in arrear, which list shall contain the names of the person or persons assessed, with a description of the property upon which taxes are due and in arrear, and the amount of tax levied and in arrear thereon with the interest and costs and expenses accrued and to accrue thereon to the day of sale, to which list shall be appended a notice that if the said taxes are not paid on or before the second Monday in April next ensuing, together

List of delinquent
taxpayers to
be made out.
