

CHAP. 167.

vicinity, two justices of the peace and three constables; No. 4, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 5, three justices of the peace and two constables; No. 6, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 7, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 8, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 9, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 10, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 11, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 12, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 13, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 14, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 15, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 16, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 18, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 19, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 20, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 23, two justices of the peace and two constables.

Section 265 A. The justices of the peace appointed from and for districts 3, 17, 21, 22, 24 and 25, constituting Hagerstown and vicinity, shall have, in addition to their duties as justices of the peace of the State of Maryland, the enforcement of the ordinances of said town.

Additional
duties imposed.

Section 265 B. The justices of the peace appointed for districts 3, 17, 21, 22, 24 and 25, before qualifying as such, shall each give bond to the State of Maryland in a penalty of one thousand dollars, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County, conditioned that he will well and faithfully perform and execute the duties and obligations of the office of justice of the peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of Washington County all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for or on account of criminal offenses tried before him, under the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws and Code of Public Local Laws, and that he will account for and pay over to the tax collector of Hagerstown all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for or on account of offenses against the ordinances of Hagerstown, and that he will well and truly account for and pay over to the person, persons, corporation or corporations entitled to the same, all money coming into his hands for or on account of any business pertaining to or connected with his office. And the bond of the said justice of the peace shall be liable at the suit of the State of Maryland for the use of the County Commissioners of Washington county and of the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown and of any person, persons, corporation or corporations entitled under any default of said condition.

Bond
to be given.

Bond liable.