

CHAP. 176. title "Birds and Game," to follow after section 55, and to be known as Section 55 A of said Article.

New section added. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That the following section be and it is hereby added to Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Birds and Game," to follow after section 55 A and to be known as Section A of said Article.

Game law. Section 55 A. It shall not be lawful for any person, not a bona fide resident of said county, to shoot any partridges, pheasants, woodcock, rabbit, turkey, wild duck, or turkey in said county, without having first obtained from the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county a license permitting the person therein named to shoot said game in said county for one year from the day on which such license is issued, and such license shall not be transferable. The person named therein, or party procuring such license shall pay to said clerk therefor the sum of fifteen dollars per year, which amount shall be paid by said clerk to the Board of School Commissioners of said county, for the use of the public schools of said county, and fifty cents to the clerk as a fee for issuing such license; and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county for gunning therein without having first obtained the license aforesaid shall be fined twenty-five dollars for each and every such offence; in failure to pay said fine and costs, the offender shall be committed to the county jail for twenty days; the one-half of all fines so imposed under this Act shall be paid to the informer and the remainder to the Board of County School Commissioners of said county, for the use of the public schools of said county; provided, that nothing in this Act shall prevent the owners of land in Frederick county from giving written permission to non-residents to hunt upon their one lands in said county.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 177.

AN ACT to authorize and require the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to levy a sum to be applied to the purchasing a lot of ground and the building of a school house in the First District of Baltimore County near Dickeyville.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of