

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 17 B of Article 77 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Public Education," sub-title "Superintendent of Public Education," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows: CHAP. 194.
Repeal and re-enact.

Section 17 B. That said Superintendent of Public Education shall receive a salary from said appropriations for public schools, the amount of which salary shall be fixed by the State Board of Education, provided it shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars per annum, in addition to an allowance of five hundred dollars per annum for traveling expenses; the said Superintendent of Public Education shall receive annually the sum of one thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be needed for the purchase of stationery and office fixtures and supplies, and he shall cause to be printed and distributed to the public school teachers of the counties of the State, each year, a pamphlet for the proper observance of Arbor Day, a teachers' manual of institute work, the proceedings of the Maryland State Teachers' Association, and such other circulars and printed matter as will encourage the work of public instruction and promote its uniformity; provided, all bills for such expenditures shall be approved by the State Board of Education; and the said superintendent shall be provided with a clerk, who shall also act as clerk to the State Board of Education, and who shall be paid a reasonable salary, to be fixed by the said board out of its allowance for contingent or necessary expenses; provided, further, that the office of said board shall be the office of said superintendent.

Salary.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 195.

AN ACT granting to T. Morgan Owens, of Cecil County, Maryland, his heirs and assigns, the right to construct and maintain a wharf in the Susquehanna River, to low water mark, from and on the front of his lot of land, in or near the Town of Perryville, in said Cecil County.

WHEREAS, T. Morgan Owens is the owner of a lot of land, in or near the Town of Perryville, in Cecil County, State of Maryland, fronting on the Susquehanna river, being the same lot of land, which was allotted to him by the Circuit Court for Cecil County aforesaid, in the division of the real estate

Preamble.