

CHAP. 23. (14) outside of the corporate limits of Oakland, Garrett county, after the first day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and two (1902).

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of May, nineteen hundred and two, and it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm or corporation within said election district number fourteen (14) outside of the corporate limits of Oakland, to take orders for any such liquors, medicated bitters or alcoholic compounds at any time, under any pretense, in any manner, or for any purpose whatever, and if any person shall therein take any order or orders therefor, then such person or persons, the members of such firm, and the directors, trustees or managers of such corporation so doing, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for Garrett county or before any justice of the peace thereof, shall for each and every offense be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars, or to be sentenced to the Maryland house of correction for not less than three nor more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court or justice.

Effective.

Approved March 5, 1902.

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT to change the boundary line between Brinkley Election District or District No. 3 and Westover Election District or District No. 13 in Somerset county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the lines between election district No. 3, known as Brinkley's election district, and election district No. 13, known as Westover election district, as now laid down, be changed, and that the line which shall hereafter divide said districts shall be as follows: Beginning with the county bridge, spanning the Annamessex river, near the Scarborough property; thence by and with the Annamessex river in an eastwardly direction to the old Annamessex river bridge near the residence of the late George R. Dennis; thence in a southwardly direction by and with the main county road to Carroll's Corner, near the site of the old Kingston M. E. Church; thence eastwardly by and with and following the present line between said Brinkley's and Westover districts to Bogg's Corner; thence northeastwardly by the county road leading to R. W. Adam's old steam mill site, to the present line between Westover and Dublin districts at or near said steam mill site.

Lines to be changed.
