CHAPTER 198.

AN ACT to repeal Section 264 A of Chapter 349 of the Acts of eighteen hundred and ninety-six, entitled "An Act to add an additional Section to Article twenty-three of the Code of Public General Laws, title 'Corporations,' sub-title 'Dissolution of Corporations,' to follow Section 264, to be designated as Section 264 A, relating to preferences and to fraudulent and improper conveyances and transfers made by corporations when insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 264 A of chapter 349 of the Acts of eighteen hundred and ninety six, entitled "An Act to add an additional section to Article twenty-three of the Code of Public General Laws, title 'Corporations,' sub-title 'Dissolution of Corporations,' to follow section 264, to be designated as a section 264 A, relating to preferences and to fraudulent and improper conveyances and transfers made by corporations when insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, so as to read as follows:

Repeal and re-enact.

264 A. Whenever any corporation mentioned in section 264 of this Article, other than railroad companies chartered by this State, shall have been determined or proven to be insolvent, as in said Section 264 stated, all payments, conveyances and assignments of the money, property, debts or claims of said corporation, and all preferences howsoever made by it or by any of its officers on its behalf, which would be void or fraudulent if the same had been made by a natural person, who had become an insolvent under Article 47 of the Code of Public General Laws, shall, to the like extent and with like remedies, be fraudulent and void when made by such corporation or by any of its officers on its behalf; and whenever any such corporation shall have been adjudged to be dissolved as provided in the next preceding section of this Article, all of its property and assets of every description shall be distributed to the creditors of said

When payments, conveyances and assignments of money, etc., declared void and fraudulent.
