

Laws, and there shall be at every primary election a voting place in each precinct or election districts, which shall be selected as provided in section 11 of this Article, and furnished in the same manner as at a general election. They shall be conducted under the direction and control of the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections by the judges and clerks of election appointed by them under the provisions of said Article 33 for the conduct of elections held thereunder. The polls shall be opened and closed at the hours prescribed by said Article 33 for elections held thereunder in Baltimore city and the several counties. The books of registry shall be furnished to the judges at each polling place, and shall be used at such elections in the same way as they are now used at municipal and county elections held under the provisions of said Article 33. For said primary elections to be held during the present year 1902 in Baltimore city the existing books of registry shall be used and the judges having charge of the registries shall, in the vacant column therein headed "Voted," if there be such column in the same line with the name of the voter, mark the word "Voted," or the letter V. If there be no such column so headed, the said judge shall, in ink, make such column and heading, "Voted at Primary Election of 1902," and mark the word "Voted," or the letter V therein in the same way as is prescribed in section 61 of said Article 33. In the books of registry to be hereafter prepared for use in Baltimore city a column headed "Voted at Primary Election" shall be, in which column such word "Voted" or letter V shall be hereafter entered at the primary election at which such registers shall be used. In the counties until new books of registry shall be required to be prepared according to existing law, the present books of registry shall be used, and the judges shall therein make a column headed "Voted at Primary Election of ———," and enter in like manner therein the word "Voted" or the letter V. Persons arriving at the age of twenty-one years after the closing of the next preceding registration and entitled to be registered as qualified voters shall be entitled to vote upon proving under oath to the satisfaction of a majority of the judges of election their right to registration in the precinct at which they shall claim the right to vote. Official ballots shall be prepared for such primary elections by the several Boards of Supervisors of Election as is now provided by said Article 33, and said several Boards of Supervisors shall print on said official ballots the names of all candidates and the names of all delegates to any convention or nominating convention who have become duly qualified by the payment of the amount herein named and shall have filed a certificate in writing con-
