

as having been voted. Whenever the name of any candidate is so placed upon the ballot, the candidate's surname shall determine his place under the alphabetical arrangement as hereinbefore provided in this Article upon said ballot, and the names of his delegates shall follow immediately after his name in such order as submitted to the Board of Supervisors of Elections. Ballots shall be cast, counted and canvassed, and the result of the election announced and certified, as now provided by said Article 33 for elections held thereunder, and the said election shall be held and conducted in the manner and form provided by this Article for general elections, and subject to all the regulations, requirements and provisions as prescribed by this Article for general elections in so far as the same is applicable to said primary elections. Challengers and watchers representing the candidates shall be allowed to be present at the several voting places during the voting and counting of the ballots as provided in said Article 33. As many different sets of official ballots shall be printed and supplied at each polling place, and as many ballot-boxes shall be used at each polling place, as there are separate party nominations to be voted for; and to prevent voters belonging to or acting with one political party from inadvertently or intentionally casting their ballot for the candidates for nomination or election as delegates to any nominating convention of any other party, the ballots of the several parties shall be printed upon paper of different colors, and until after the next general registration every person offering to vote shall be required to state to which party he belongs and which party's candidates he intends to vote for at the State, city or county election, and he shall be supplied only with the official ballot prepared for the candidates of such party, excepting as hereinafter provided for Baltimore city. As each voter's name shall be entered in the poll books kept by the two clerks of election, there shall be entered opposite his name the name of the party whose candidates he votes for. The provisions, all and singular, of sections 83 to 109 of this Article, both inclusive, and the offenses defined and the penalties and punishments prescribed therefor in said sections, shall be fully applicable in all respects to the same persons, matters, acts and omissions in connection with or pertaining to the primary election held under this Article, sub-title "Primary Elections;" and said sections are hereby made applicable to all primary elections provided for and held hereunder; and any judge, clerk or other officer of any primary election, or any voter or other person who would be deemed guilty of any offence against the general election law, or any provision thereof, in a general election, who is found guilty of the same
