

CHAP. 308.
Preamble.

Carolina, is an epitome of the recent phenomenal, industrial and commercial growth and development of the Southern States in which the State of Maryland and the city of Baltimore have taken a conspicuous part; and

WHEREAS, It is desirable and important to the prosperity of the State of Maryland that the intimate trade relations heretofore established between Maryland and the South shall be fostered and promoted in every possible way; and

WHEREAS, It is customary and advantageous in securing these ends that a date shall be designated and set apart at such exposition to be known as Maryland Day, which shall be appropriately commemorated by the Governor, the commissioners and the people of the State generally, for which purpose it is necessary to provide funds therefor.

Appropriation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for the joint use of said commissioners heretofore appointed by the Governor, and whose appointments were confirmed by chapter 12, Acts of 1901, of the General Assembly of Maryland, approved April 1, 1901, and the Comptroller of the State is hereby authorized to draw his warrants upon the State Treasurer for the payment of such requisitions to the extent of this appropriation as may from time to time be made upon him by said commissioners. The said requisitions to be signed by the chairman of said commissioners, and countersigned by their treasurer, and approved by the Governor, and to be accompanied by the estimate of the expenses to which the money so drawn is to be applied.

How to be expended.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That said commissioners are hereby authorized to expend such appropriation in such manner as in their discretion will best accomplish the purposes for which it is made.

SEC. 3. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 309.

AN ACT to repeal Section 68 B of Article twenty of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Somerset County," sub-title "Crisfield," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That article twenty, section 68 B of the Code of
