

Public Local Laws, title "Somerset County," sub-title "Crisfield," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, so as to read as follows :

CHAP. 309.
Repeal
and re-enact.

Section 68 B. Every bailiff before entering upon his duties shall subscribe to an oath for the faithful performance of his duties, for the enforcement of the ordinances and resolutions of the town, and the preservation of its peace and good order ; he shall be vested with all the civil and police powers of a constable of Crisfield district, and any one interfering or hindering him or them in any manner whatsoever in the discharge of his or their duties shall be liable, upon conviction, to punishment in the same manner and to the same extent as if he or they had interfered or hindered a constable. Any bailiff of the town of Crisfield, who shall make an arrest under and by virtue of any warrant issued by a justice of the peace of Somerset county having his office in the town of Crisfield, shall, upon conviction and sentence of such person or persons to the house of correction, house of refuge or house of reformation, be allowed to remove such person or persons convicted and sentenced as aforesaid to the said house of correction, house of refuge or house of reformation ; and any bailiff who shall remove any convict or convicts, prisoner or prisoners, to any of the said institutions shall be allowed the same compensation as is now allowed the sheriff or constables performing the same kind of service, and said compensation shall include all expenses incidental to the removal of said convict or convicts, and the County Commissioners of Somerset county are hereby required and directed to levy and pay over the said compensation for such service as aforesaid to the bailiff of the town of Crisfield, who shall perform the same at the same time when other sums for expenses for the said county for the current or fiscal year are levied and paid ; and he shall perform all such other duties as are or shall be imposed upon him by law, ordinance or by order of the Town Commissioners, and he shall pay over all fines and fees that may be collected by him to the treasurer monthly.

Oath
to be taken.

Compensation.
