

contracts made with its policy holders, of the fact of such report and advice; and shall thereupon, if such company shall refuse or neglect to adjust its rates in accordance with the advice of said actuary, cause an examination to be made into the affairs of said company as provided in section 122 of this Article, sub-section fifth, and if the opinion of said actuary be sustained by the result of such examination it shall be the duty of the Insurance Commissioner to require said company to cease writing and issuing policies at rates so found to be insufficient. If said insurance company continues the writing and issuing of such policies after notice from the Insurance Commissioner then it shall be the duty of the Insurance Commissioner to institute proceedings against said company as provided in section 122 of this Article.

CHAP. 338.

Section 122 b. No order, judgment or decree providing for an accounting or enjoining, restraining or interfering with the prosecuting of the business of any domestic insurance corporation or appointing a temporary or permanent receiver thereof shall be made or granted otherwise than upon complaint or other proceedings instituted by the Insurance Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of sub-section 7 of section 122 of this Article, except in an action by a judgment creditor or in proceedings supplementary to execution.

Order judgment or decree granted.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That section 143 E J be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 339.

AN ACT to fix the compensation of the Supervisors of Elections for Baltimore County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Each Supervisor of Elections for Baltimore county shall receive an annual salary of three hundred dollars. This salary shall be paid as provided in section 2 of article 33 of Code of Public General Laws.

Salary.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 340.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to The Board of Visitors of the Maryland Asylum and Training School for Feeble-minded Children for the erection of a new building for the accommodation of its inmates.