

CHAP. 354 district, one in second commissioner's district, and one in third commissioner's district of said county.

Duty of road inspectors. Section 103 A. It shall be the duty of the road inspectors to ride over the roads of their respective districts and precincts, and to advise and direct the supervisors when, where and in what manner work on said roads shall be done; said inspectors shall inspect all work done and shall approve or disapprove, setting forth their reasons in writing to the Board of County Commissioners all accounts of supervisors as one herein provided for in this Act; provided, that nothing in this section shall prevent the County Commissioners for paying all or such party of such accounts as they shall deem fair and just. It shall be the duty of the road inspectors to lodge complaint with the Board of County Commissioners against the road supervisors of their respective districts or precincts whenever in their judgment said supervisors is unfit to hold said position, and if after due investigation on the part of the Board of County Commissioners charges are sustained, it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to remove said supervisor.

Term of office of road supervisors. Section 103 B. The road supervisors shall hold their appointment for one year, unless removed for cause by the County Commissioners; they shall be subject to the director of the road inspector. It shall be the duty of the supervisors to employ all laborers and to furnish all teams for work on the public roads, and shall furnish an account to the County Commissioners of same, giving the number of days made by himself and by each laborer and teams, and the cost of materials, together with the approval or disapproval, as herein provided for, of the road inspectors, at the first meeting of the Board of Commissioners in every month, or as soon after as practicable.

Bond to be given. Section 103 c. The road supervisors shall receive all payments of accounts, which shall be in cash whenever available, and shall make proper distributions of same to the rightful owners, conditioned upon which and for the safe return of all tools, implements and machines; he shall, before entering upon his duties as supervisor, give a good and sufficient bond, with surety to be approved by the County Commissioners, in the sum of five hundred dollars.

Duty of road supervisors. Section 103 d. It shall be the duty of the road supervisors to remove all obstructions at least ten feet from the centre of the roads, and to require all owners to remove their fences ten feet from the centre of said roads, if public convenience shall require it, and in all deep cuts or sharp curves, to make the roadbed wide enough for two tracks whenever the same can be done without excessive cost or inconvenience.