

to shoot or kill any wild ducks, geese, brant or swan in the waters of this county within three miles of the shore line of Middle and Lower Hoopers Island without having obtained permission of the owner or owners of the land bordering on the waters where said person or persons desire to shoot. And any person not a taxpayer or bona fide resident convicted by any justice of the peace of said county for shooting or killing any wild ducks, geese, brant, or swan without such permission shall be fined twenty-five dollars and costs, and on failure to pay said fine of twenty-five dollars the offender shall be committed to the house of correction or the county jail for not less than ten nor more than thirty days for each offense. In the case of conviction of any person for violation of the provisions of this section, one-half of all the fines imposed and collected shall be paid to the person procuring said conviction and the other half of said fines shall be paid into the free school treasury of Dorchester county for the use of said schools.

CHAP. 366.
Game law.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 356.

AN ACT to incorporate the town of Midland, Allegany county, by amending the Code of Public Local Laws, Article 1, title "Allegany County," by adding two Sections under the new sub-title "Midland," to follow Section No. 184, and to be designated respectively as Sections 184 A and 184 B.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following sections be and they are hereby added to Article 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Allegany County," under the new sub-title "Midland," to follow section No. 184, and to be designated respectively as sections No. 184 A and 184 B.

New section added.

MIDLAND.

Section 184 A. The inhabitants in the town of Midland in Allegany county are a corporation by the name of The Mayor and Council of Midland, and by that name may have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and may purchase and hold such real, personal or mixed property as may be required for the purposes of said corporation, and may dispose of such property, when necessary, for the benefit of said corporation, and all the property and funds of every kind belonging to said corporation are vested in the Mayor and Council of Midland.

Body
corporate.