

Section 31. It shall not be lawful to shoot, kill or in any way entrap or destroy any wild birds or any wild fowl of any description, except hawks, crows, owls, English sparrows, wild geese, wild ducks, wild pigeons, jack snipe, sand snipe, plover, cedar birds and rails, or to shoot, kill, entrap, wound or destroy any rabbit, squirrel, deer or fawn; provided, however, that it shall be lawful to shoot woodcock between the twelfth day of July and the twenty-fifth day of December; pheasants and doves between the twelfth day of August and the twenty-fifth day of December; squirrel between the fifteenth day of September and the twenty-fifth day of December; deer and wild turkey between the first day of November and the first day of the following January; quail, partridges and rabbits between the first day of November and the twenty-fifth day of December; but it shall not be lawful to use ferrits to hurt or kill rabbits at any time.

[CHAP. 379.
Game law.

Section 31 A. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident or taxpayer of the State of Maryland or District of Columbia to shoot, hunt, catch or kill any game or fish of any kind in the county of Washington, without having first obtained from the clerk of the Circuit Court of said county a license permitting the person therein named to shoot, hunt, catch or kill game or fish in said county for the period of one year from the date of the issue thereof. And such license shall not be transferable; and in order to guard against such transfer, the clerk at the time of issuing the same shall write a description of the party obtaining the same on the back thereof, as a means of identification of such license; a license fee of ten dollars shall be charged for such license, besides the fifty cents to said clerk for issuing such license. The whole amount of license money so received shall by said clerk be paid to the Board of School Commissioners of said county for the use of the public schools therein. Any non-resident of said county convicted before a justice of the peace for gunning and fishing therein without such license shall be fined ten dollars for each offense, and in default of payment of such fine and cost shall be committed to the county jail for a period of thirty days, and for the purpose of the strict enforcement of the aforesaid provision of this and the next preceding section the sheriff, deputy sheriff, constables and road supervisors in said county are hereby clothed with the powers conferred on game wardens and deputy game wardens by the general law of this State, and shall receive similar remuneration. The licensees under this section shall always when hunting carry their licenses with them, and shall present them to any of the foregoing officers when demanded by them, and upon failing to produce such license the said
