

CHAP. 384. appointed the clerk and treasurer under the provisions of law that are hereby repealed.

Books,
papers, etc.,
to be exhibited
upon application.

Section 52. He shall upon application exhibit the books, papers and levies in his office and make certified copies or extracts thereof for any person demanding the same, and charge for the same, for the use of the county, such fees as are chargeable by the clerk of the Circuit Court for similar work, and such copies, under the seal of the County Commissioners, shall be evidence to the same extent as the originals would be if produced in proceedings in Court or otherwise; all fees received from this source, however, shall be accounted for to the County Commissioners by the said clerk and treasurer.

Salary.

Section 53. He shall receive a salary not exceeding eight hundred dollars, nor less than six hundred dollars, and shall receive no extra or other compensation or fees of any kind for the duties now imposed upon himself by law by the provisions of this Act or otherwise, which may properly appertain to his office.

Collect,
receive and
disburse
money.

Section 54. He shall collect, receive and disburse all moneys which may come into his hands as treasurer for the payment of the jurors, bailiffs, witnesses, messengers and criers attending the Circuit Court for Charles County, and for the payment of the county bonds and interest thereon and all other moneys from whatsoever source that may be payable to the said County Commissioners under the provisions of the Public General Laws of this State or the Public Local Laws of this county, or otherwise; all of said funds to be collected, received, deposited and disbursed under such regulations not inconsistent with law as the County Commissioners shall prescribe, and such orders not inconsistent with law as they shall from time to time make, and for the purpose of making payments to the jurors, bailiffs, witnesses, messengers and criers aforesaid he shall attend to the court house during the sessions of the Circuit Court; he shall keep a complete set of books showing receipts of all moneys received by him as aforesaid, and disbursements of the same, which said books shall be at all times open to the inspection of the public, and he shall immediately after each jury term of the Circuit Court for said county make a full and detailed report and exhibit to the County Commissioners of all his receipts and disbursements, together with the vouchers therefor, and the failure to do so for thirty days after the adjournment of such Court shall be cause for removal from his said office, in the discretion of the County Commissioners.
