

CHAP. 387. SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the School Examiner shall keep a separate account of the money collected each year by him for, and applied toward, the payment of the interest and deposited to meet the principal of said bonds at maturity, and no part thereof shall be chargeable with insolvencies allowed the treasurer on account of failure of assessments or collections.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the money arising from the sale of said bonds, as provided in this Act, shall be paid to the School Examiner of said county, who shall keep in a book for that purpose a registry of the bonds and the names of the purchaser or purchasers and the amount or amounts realized, and the payment of the semi-annual interest on the said bonds and the date of redemption and cancellation of the principal thereof.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the fund realized from the sale of said bonds shall be applied to the purposes set forth in this Act, and to no other purpose, and shall be paid out by the School Examiner upon the order of the said building and improvement commission, from a warrant book especially authorized by said commission, with said warrants numbered consecutively; and the said commission is hereby authorized and directed to pay the contractor or contractors employed by said commission in accordance with the terms of their said contract upon the warrant of said commission, such sum or sums of money as shall be certified in such warrants that such contractor or contractors are entitled to in the performance of the contract, and shall pay upon the warrant of said commission the cost of plan and specifications of the work proposed to be done, and such other expenses as said commission may properly have incurred in the discharge of its duty; and no part of said proceeds of sale of said bonds shall be paid out by said School Examiner except on the warrant of said commission authorized by this Act.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 388.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to pay the claim of George B. Flynn, for services rendered as Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Delegates at the Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, nineteen hundred.