

CHAP. 406. power to adopt such by-laws as are necessary for the proper management of all the affairs of said company, and the board of directors may meet as often as may be necessary for the transaction of the business of the corporation.

Additional power granted. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That said corporation within the scope of the full enjoyment of the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, shall have and enjoy, besides these powers and privileges in this Act particularly enumerated, all other general powers, provisions and privileges conferred by the general incorporation laws of this State upon corporations duly incorporated under the same, including the right to acquire property by condemnation in the mode prescribed in section 248, Article 23, of the Code of Public General Laws, and all the property of said company shall be subject to State taxation only for the period of ten years from the passage of this Act, after which time it shall be subject to taxation for State, county and municipal purposes.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 407.

AN ACT to add four new Sections to Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County," under the new sub-title "Feagaville," to follow Section 139 of said Article and to be known as Sections 139 A, 139 B, 139 c and 139 d, being an Act to prohibit the running at large and pasturing of livestock along the turnpike which runs through the village of Feagaville, Frederick county, Maryland.

New sections added. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County," be amended under the new sub-title "Feagaville," by adding four new sections to said Article, to be designated sections 139 A, 139 B, 139 c and 139 d.

Unlawful for any horse, cattle, etc., to run at large at night. 139 A. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for the owner or owners of any horse, cattle, hogs, or sheep to allow them to pasture or run at large at night time along the turnpike known as the Frederick and Jefferson turnpike, on both sides of which is located the village of Feagaville, the limits of the above prohibition to extend from the second milestone from Frederick, which is