

CHAP. 408. the time of bringing of the suit, or if the plaintiff be a corporation, the said affidavit or affirmation may be made by any agent of plaintiff or plaintiffs, or any of them, who will make further oath or affirmation that he has personal knowledge of the matter herein stated; and the said affirmation or affidavit may be made before any of the persons who may take an affidavit or affirmation to authorize the issuing of a foreign attachment, and may be certified in the same manner.

Assess damages.

Section 24 D. When any judgment by default shall be entered under any of the preceding sections the Court may at any time thereafter assess the damages upon proof thereof without impanneling a jury to do so.

Stay of execution.

Section 24 E. On all judgments entered in said Court there shall be a stay of execution until the return day or the first day of the term, whichever shall first occur next succeeding the return day or the first day of the term at which said judgment may have been entered, with the right to the defendant to supersede the same for six months from the expiration of said stay as now allowed by law; provided, however, that the Court may, on motion in writing by the plaintiff or his attorney, showing sufficient reasons therefor, allow an execution or attachment or other proper writ to be issued at any time after the entry of judgment as aforesaid and before the expiration of said stay.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect upon the first day of May in the year nineteen hundred and two.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 410.

AN ACT to regulate the closed season for hunting, shooting, catching, killing or having in possession partridges, quail, pheasants, rabbits, squirrels, woodcock, snipe or plover in Anne Arundel and Prince George's Counties, and to provide for the enforcement of same.

Game law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person shall shoot or in any manner hunt, catch, kill or have in possession in Anne Arundel or Prince George's counties, in this State, any partridge or quail, English or Mongolian pheasant, American pheasant, rabbit or squirrel, between the twenty-fifth day of December and the ninth day of November, following, both days inclusive in each and every year, or any woodcock between the first day of January and the first day of July, following, both days inclu-
