

to imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court, and his license shall be revoked; and in default of payment of any fine and costs so imposed, the bond herein provided for shall be put to suit for the recovery thereof; and it shall not be necessary in an indictment for said second offense to allege a former conviction under the provisions of this Act, but such former conviction may be proven in the trial for said second offense, or brought to the notice of the Court before sentence, without such allegation. Any person who shall knowingly procure for or give to an habitual drunkard any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, in violation of the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court. The license of any person who permits minors to frequent, loiter or loaf about his place, or disreputable or disorderly persons to make it a customary place of visitation or resort, may at any time, on indictment and conviction, be revoked by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, and the same person shall not again be licensed within two years of the time of such revocation.

CHAP. 415.
Penalty for violation.

175 P. It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Act to sell any spirituous liquors or lager beer, or to suffer or permit any person to enter or remain in his saloon between the hours of 12 o'clock P. M. and 5.30 o'clock A. M. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be liable upon indictment and conviction to the penalties prescribed for licensees in section 175 L.

Hours of opening and closing of saloons.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1902.

CHAPTER 416.

AN ACT to empower and require the Board of County Commissioners of Frederick County, Maryland, to provide for free scholarships to students of Frederick County in the Buckeystown Normal School in said county.

WHEREAS, The Buckeystown Normal School of Buckeystown, Frederick county, Maryland, has been for more than thirteen years educating teachers who have been giving efficient service in the public schools, but the great demand for trained teachers requires further provisions.

Preamble.