CHAPTER 493.

AN ACT to repeal Section 36 of Article 5 of the Public Local Laws, title "Calvert County," sub-title "Birds and Game," and re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person, not a bona fide resident of Calvert county, to shoot or trap any partridge, woodcock or rabbit in said county, without having first obtained from the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county a license permitting the person named therein, or parties procuring such license, to shoot or trap in said county; he shall pay the sum of ten ($10.00) dollars, which amount shall be paid to the clerk of Board of School Commissioners of said county, and fifty (50c.) cents to clerk, as per fee issuing the said license, and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county for gunning without said license shall be fined ten ($10.00) dollars for each and every offense, and upon failure to pay said fines and cost shall be committed to county jail for ten days; one-half of all fines imposed hereunder shall be paid to informer, and the remainder to Board of School Commissioners of said county for use of public schools; provided, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the extension of any citizen of the county an invitation to any non-resident friend to shoot upon the lands of which he is owner, or upon those from whom a written permission has been obtained so to do.

Game law.

SEC. 2. It shall not be lawful for any one to ship or attempt to ship to any place beyond the limits of Calvert county, or to sell to any one for the purpose of shipping to any place beyond the limits of said county, for the purpose of sale, barter or trade, any partridge, woodcock or rabbit, shot, taken or trapped in said county, and for any violation of the provisions of this section, upon conviction before a justice of the peace, shall be fined the sum of ($10) ten dollars for each and every offense, to be disposed of as in preceding section.

Unlawful to ship any partridge, woodcock or rabbit for the purpose of sale, etc.

Approved April 8, 1902.
